

Privacy Policy

Huron Area Education FCU is committed to making financial products and services available that will enable you to meet your financial needs and reach your financial goals. Protecting personal information and using it in a manner consistent with our expectations is a high priority for everyone associated with HAEFCU.

HAEFCU collects and may disclose nonpublic personal information about its members from the following sources:

- Information received on applications and other forms,
- Information about transactions with us, and
- Information received from a consumer reporting agency.

To ensure that you can rely upon the quality of products and services we make available, HAEFCU stands behind the following privacy policy:

HAEFCU will collect only the personal information that is necessary to conduct our business.

HAEFCU will protect your personal information. We will maintain strong security controls to ensure that member information in our files and computers is protected.

You will always have access to your information.

HAEFCU will only share information when absolutely necessary. We will only share information to administer the products and services we provide or when required to do so by the government (i.e. IRS, federal examiner or auditor). We will not make our membership listing available to other businesses nor will we sell member information to telemarketing firms.

HAEFCU will not disclose information about former members at the point membership is terminated unless requested in writing by the member or will not disclose beyond what is permitted by law.

If you have any questions about your right to privacy or would like a copy of the policy, please feel free to contact the office. (605-352-1311)
